Key Question 3: How well do the learning experiences meet the needs and interests of learners and the wider community?

Grade 2: Good features and no important shortcomings

- 83 The provision for promoting the pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development is good. The school organises services of collective worship that conform to requirements and that are firmly grounded in Christian values.
- 84 The teachers strive to nurture respect and courtesy amongst pupils and they work diligently to promote sound moral values. The pupils are encouraged to raise funds for a range of national charities such as Hope House, as well as international charities.
