Key Question 3: How well do the learning experiences meet the needs and interests of learners and the wider community?

Grade 1: Good with outstanding features

94 The school's provision for promoting the pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development is outstanding. Through a personal and social education programme which has been mapped out in detail across the school, regular 'circle time' sessions and the School Council, pupils receive valuable opportunities to discuss, question, and reach decisions on moral and social issues, and to have an effective influence on some aspects of the day-to-day life of the school. The values that are nurtured by the school and the opportunities the pupils receive to help others, to live together, and to foster respect towards diversity within society are evidently outstanding features. This is clearly reflected in the ethos of the school and in the pupils' outstanding behaviour standards.
