Item 3: URGENT ITEMS

DECISION

- Resolved that the Llŷn AONB Officer summarize the the Joint Committee's comments and present them in the consultation that's open on the Cwyd Alun development at the Penrhos Site. The Llŷn AONB Officer would also share a link to the consultation with the Joint Committee so that Members could comment individually.
- Resolved to hold a Special Meeting to discuss the possible development of Solar Panels on Coed y Wern land when relevant as the site could be visible from the AONB. It was explained that it was premature at present as no planning application had been provided yet but rather a pre-planning application. A planning application is likely to be submitted in due course.
- Resolved to send an invitation to members of the Joint Committee to attend the Tourism Conference, Gwynedd and Eryri Sustainable Visitor Economy Event 2035 which will be held on 30 November.

Item 8: DARK SKY DESIGNATION

DECISION

Resolved to defer this matter for further consultation. Some Members of the Joint Committee wished to receive more information before supporting the application to the IDA for Dark Sky Park designation for the Llŷn AONB.

It was agreed that the Llŷn AONB Officer would arrange a virtual meeting at the beginning of the year and invite all Community Councils within the AONB to ensure further consultation on the subject and to give Community Councils the opportunity to ask questions. It was noted that the Llŷn AONB Officer would forward a presentation to the Community Councils; arrangements will be made for an Officer to contact the Clerks of the Community Councils.

DECLARATIONS OF PERSONAL INTEREST AND PROTOCOL MATTERS

No declarations of personal interest or relevant dispensations were received.
